CHURCH & DWIGHT CO., INC.

When it introduced sodium bicarbonate—better known as Arm & Hammer® baking soda—to American homes more than 150 years ago, Church & Dwight Co., Inc. had few of the energy requirements it has today. One of the leading consumer packaged goods companies in the U.S., its diverse product lines roll out of nine plants that all operate with one core ingredient: the energy expertise of Constellation. Experts from Constellation’s Fellon-McCord division bring customized energy consultation to each plant while applying expert problem-solving, in-depth industry knowledge and unparalleled energy market savvy. Now that’s a fresh approach to meeting today’s energy needs. How can Constellation make energy work for you? | constellation.com | 800-900-1982
