

Real Stories, Real Success: Business Journeys with Constellation

WS Jenks.

“We used to spend time questioning our energy bills. With Constellation, everything is clear and predictable, which saves us time and makes managing our business easier.”

Customer Profile.

WS Jenks is a retail and wholesale distributor of hardware, tools, and various equipment serving home, construction, and government customers.

The Challenge.

With rising energy costs, WS Jenks needed an energy provider they felt confident working with. Past suppliers often couldn't clearly explain billing charges, which led to confusion and frustration when questions came up.

The Solution.

After working with multiple suppliers who couldn't explain billing charges, WS Jenks chose Constellation for its customer service and reputation. Since making the switch, they've experienced clear, straightforward billing. While energy savings matter, the biggest impact has been the time saved. With fewer billing questions and a simpler review process, managing energy has become faster and less stressful, freeing up time to focus on day to day business operations.
